

The Stitch

November 2025

Happy Fall friends!

The holiday season is right around the corner, and it's officially time to start prepping for family dinners, cozy gatherings, and thoughtful gift giving. My sewing room has been buzzing with all things fall and Christmas – and I'm so excited to share what's new!

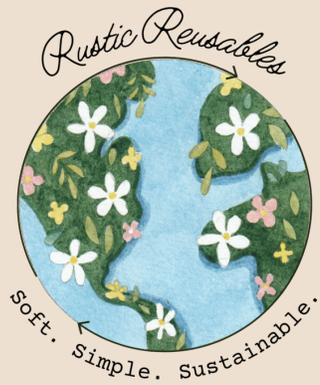

Fall always inspires me to create pieces that bring warmth and joy into everyday life, whether that's a seasonal gift, a handmade doll, or something fun for your pets. I've been busy stitching, stocking, and dreaming up new items to share, and I'm so excited to finally let you in on what's fresh and ready for you this season!
